

All4One Piano Duo Bio

From start to finish the All4One Piano Duo, featuring Alexander Wu and Frank Ponzio, is an aural and visual tour de force that breaks down conventional musical boundaries and boldly steps forward into a new genre of chamber music performance. The entertaining solo and duo performances seamlessly alternate with lively and fascinating stories supported by piano underscoring. The piano duo's unique original four-hand arrangements juxtapose the likes of Chopin with bossa nova, Beethoven with swing and a tag team dance medley that caps off the concert.

The All 4One Piano Duo has performed a hundred plus concerts along the east coast, with numerous performances in the New York metropolitan area that include Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall, Town Hall, Merkin Concert Hall, Steinway Hall, and Museum of Modern Art. From concert halls to local venues the duo has successfully attracted diverse audiences by customizing their programs for special events such as art exhibitions, interactive children's concert, the history of the piano, Black history month, and Hispanic Heritage month.

The duo's highly successful CD, Classical and Jazz Music of the Americas was re-released at Barnes and Noble at Lincoln Square in January 2009.
